

Do I need a lift pass for my lessons? Yes - everyone using the Grand Massif lift system must carry a valid lift pass
 Is a lift pass included in my lesson cost? No - ski passes are not included in lesson prices

- Grand Massif lift passes can be purchased from the ticket desks at the bottom of each cable car
- Samoëns & Morillon ticket offices are open from 8.30am-5pm (extended hours on Saturday evenings during certain periods)
- Lift passes can be purchased from 3pm onwards for the following day
- We highly recommend taking out insurance with your lift pass
- Lift passes are also available online from <https://www.skipass-grand-massif.com/en/>

YOUR LEVEL	LIFT PASS RECOMMENDATIONS
Under 8 years of age Over 75 years of age	You'll get a free ski pass upon presentation of proof of age (passport, birth certificate or identity card).
Beginners (8 to 75 years of age inclusive)	The cheapest option is to buy single-day Débutant (Beginner) passes for the first few days. When you're ready to ski beyond the beginner zone, you can buy a VILL4GES ski pass to cover the remaining days of the week. The most convenient option is to buy a VILL4GES pass for the full week (as it means you'll only have to queue once at the ticket office). You can purchase a Beginner pass for 4hrs or a full day.
Child "Bronze Mouse" or "Cristal" level Adult Level A1	The cheapest option is to buy a Beginner pass for the first lesson, then ask your instructor at the end of each lesson which pass you'll need for the following day. The most convenient option is to buy a VILL4GES pass for the full week. You can purchase a Massif pass for 4hrs, a full day, or multiple consecutive days.
Child "Bronze" level Adult Level A2	We recommend a VILL4GES pass for the whole week. You can purchase a Massif pass for 4hrs, a full day, or multiple consecutive days.
Child "Silver" level and higher Adult Level A3 and higher	We recommend a VILL4GES pass for the whole week, or a Grand Massif pass if you're intending to ski to Flaine. You can purchase a Grand Massif pass for 4hrs, a full day, or multiple consecutive days.
Cable car access only	A pedestrian pass can be purchased for a single day or the full week.
Season Pass	If you're skiing for more than 10 days then it might be worth buying a Season Pass. Season Passes are available at a heavily discounted rate when purchased before the season begins (visit www.grand-massif.com for precise details).
